

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

GGE Congratulates Yukari Ota

Contact: John Moyes, 1.415.641.3600, jmoyes@gge.com

SAN FRANCISCO, CA: General Graphic Exhibits (GGE) congratulates 2011 EDPA scholarship winner Yukari Ota, daughter of GGE designer, Yohei Ota. Ms. Ota is a student at San Jose State University, where she is studying ceramics as well as 2-D and 3D art. “As expensive as college tuition is, art supplies pose a staggering addition to the mounting costs,” she said, “EDPA allowed me to fulfill my passion, and for that I am so grateful.” Her father, Yohei, is from Japan and studied at the Art Center College of Design.

GGE (www.gge.com) is a mid-size, value oriented company employing artisans and craftsmen, as well as designers and project managers. For fifty years, GGE has served the convention, museum, and creative markets with unprecedented attention to detail and to customers’ needs.

The Exhibit Designers and Producers Association (EDPA), founded in 1954, is an internationally recognized national trade association with more than 400 corporate members from 18 countries that are engaged in the design, manufacture, transport, installation and service of displays and exhibits primarily for the exhibition and event industry.