SAN FRANCISCO, CA: John Moyes, Principal, General Graphics Exhibits (GGE), San Francisco, was re-elected to the Executive Board of the Octanorm Service Partner International (OSPI) network at the group's annual meeting last month in Shanghai. For more than twenty years, Moyes has been managing international programs for global exhibitors coming to the United States as well as for U.S. clients exhibiting abroad. The OSPI annual meeting is integral to the network, and at this year's meeting, Moyes conducted a popular session that borrowed from David Letterman's Top 10 list format: "The Top 10 Reasons OSPI Helps Build Our Business."

GGE (www.gge.com) is a mid-size, value oriented company employing artisans and craftsmen, as well as designers and project managers. Since 1961, GGE has served the convention, museum, and creative markets with unprecedented attention to detail and to customers' needs.

OCTANORM SERVICE PARTNER INTERNATIONAL (OSPI) is a worldwide network of 151 highly qualified exhibition contractors in 55 countries that guarantee the same quality of service at any exhibition around the globe.
